1 The Court, having considered Plaintiff's Motion for Summary Judgment and
2 supporting exhibits [Dkt. No. 408], the opposition filed by Defendant Kiarash Jam
3 and Integrated Administration [Dkt. No. 415], and Plaintiff's response [Dkt. No. 417]
4 and the Defendant Kiarash Jam's Motion for Summary Judgment and supporting
5 exhibits [Dkt. No. 409], the opposition filed by Plaintiff, The Wimbledon Fund [Dkt.
6 No. 413], and Defendant's response [Dkt. No. 420], oral arguments of the parties at 7 the hearing, and after due consideration, the Court hereby grants judgment in favor of 8 Plaintiff, The Wimbledon Fund, SPC (Class TT) as follows:

9 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AND DECREED:

- 10 1. Plaintiff's Motion for Summary Judgment is GRANTED as set forth in 11 the Court's Civil Minutes [Dkt. No. 426].
- 12 2. Defendant Kiarash Jam's Motion for Summary Judgment is DENIED as 13 set forth in the Court's Civil Minutes [Dkt. No. 426].
- 14 3. Defendant Kiarash Jam is hereby declared jointly and severally liable,
15 pursuant to Tex. Bus. Orgs. Code Ann. § 21.223 (b), for the contractual
16 obligations owed by Swartz IP Services Group Inc., a/k/a Advisory IP
17 Services Inc. ("SIP") to Wimbledon, which arose out of the Note
18 Purchase Agreement, entered into by Wimbledon and SIP in November 19 2011.
- 20 4. Judgment is awarded in favor of Plaintiff The Wimbledon Fund, SPC
21 (Class TT) and against Defendant Kiarash Jam in the amounts which are 22 due and owing, minus amounts received in partial satisfaction, on the 23 judgment Plaintiff The Wimbledon Fund, SPC (Class TT) obtained
24 against SIP on November 24, 2015 in the Supreme Court of the State of 25 New York, County of New York, Index No. 650446/2013 (the "SIP
26 Judgment"), after Wimbledon sued SIP for breach of contract. The 27 parties have stipulated that this sum equals $17,666,791.61, dkt. 438.

28 ///

5. Judgment is awarded in favor of Plaintiff, The Wimbledon Fund, SPC (Class TT) and against Defendant, Integrated Administration for $2,320,000.00, which amount consists of the fraudulent conveyances that Integrated Administration received from SIP.
